Program Description

From March 27, 2007* through August 28, 2007 you can buy current releases of Adobe Production Studio Premium, Adobe After Effects 7.0 Professional, or Adobe Premiere Pro 2.0 software and get a complimentary upgrade to the new CS3 version of these products or their equivalent when they ship. You will also be able to upgrade from Production Studio Premium to Adobe Master Collection CS3 at the regular upgrade price.

How to Claim Your Upgrade

In North America, customers will be required to call Adobe's Customer Service Center at 1-800-833-6687. Adobe will ship the products directly to you (shipping fees will apply in North America and may apply elsewhere). You have until September 12, 2007 to claim your upgrade. If you buy through an Adobe reseller, will need to provide a sales receipt or shipping invoice listing the reseller name and address, product, and version ordered, order date and purchase price. Customers in North America must also provide a credit card number to charge for shipping costs.
